

Department of Public Health and Human Services

Section:
TABLE OF STANDARDS

MEDICAL ASSISTANCE

Subject:
Nursing Home Residents

Supersedes: MA 005 (01/01/06)

References: ARM 37.82.101, .1313, .1320, .1330, .1331, .1336-.1338

GENERAL RULE - Use the following standards to determine resource eligibility and category of coverage (categorically versus medically needy) for residential medical institution Medicaid benefits.

Otherwise eligible institutionalized individuals and spouses are income-eligible for nursing home coverage so long as their monthly nursing home costs equal or exceed their monthly income. See STEP I of the eligibility process in MA 904-1.

After a nursing home resident has been determined eligible for nursing home coverage as either categorically or medically needy, the amount the client is responsible to apply toward the cost of care must be calculated in STEP II of the eligibility process. See MA 904-1 through 904-3.

► INDIVIDUAL RESOURCE STANDARD

The resource standard for an unmarried institutionalized individual is $2,000.

COMMUNITY
SPOUSE RESOURCE
MAINTENANCE ALLOWANCE

When completing a couple's resource assessment, the community spouse resource maintenance allowance (CSRMA) is the greater of:

1. One-half (not to exceed $99,540) the couple's combined countable resources;
2. Montana's resource maintenance allowance of $19,908;
3. An amount designated by hearings officer; or
4. An amount which has been court ordered.

► CATEGORICALLY NEEDY INCOME
STANDARD

The monthly categorically needy income standard for an institutionalized individual is $30.

MEDICALLY NEEDY INCOME STANDARD

The monthly medically needy income level (MNIL) is $525, effective 07/01/2001.

COMMUNITY
SPOUSE INCOME
MAINTENANCE ALLOWANCE

When computing the amount of monthly income the nursing home spouse must apply toward the cost of care (STEP II), the community spouse's income maintenance allowance is the lesser of:

1. $2,488.50 less the community spouse's own gross monthly income;
or
2. A combination of:
  - ▶ a. Shelter expenses for the couple's principal residence which exceed the basic allowance of $TBD; plus
  - ▶ b. The basic needs standard of $TBA; less
  - c. The community spouse's own gross income.

See the '900' section in this manual for further information.

nc

o O o